

EMMA & PETER

JULY 30, 2016

REAL WEDDING Calgary

"My favourite moment was our speeches. We wanted our wedding to include our friends and family as much as possible, as so many of them had traveled great distances to celebrate with us, and so we had made the decision to open up the microphone to whoever wished to speak. It was heartwarming to hear stories from our childhoods, both flattering and embarrassing, and people's favourite memories of us; both together and apart. We couldn't have asked for a more perfect day."
